Can cricket help the Maasai beat FGM in Kenya?

For the Maasai, a change is coming. The young want equal rights for all, an end to FGM, and a change of attitude to HIV/AIDS. To achieve this - they are forming a cricket team.

Female genital mutilation is also an issue in the UK. Hear from two of the leading campaigners who have driven the UK Government to take action. Janet Fyle MBE, senior policy adviser at the Royal College of Midwives and Jay Kamara Fredericks, activist, will speak about the global campaign to end this unnecessary and harmful practice.

VENUE: Pamoja Hall, Sevenoaks School    DATE: 28 May 2017

TIME: Doors open at 7pm, screening begins at 7.30pm

PRICE: Tickets £10 available from www.thespacesevenoaks.co.uk
